

Around the World

Find a large map of the world and find a place to hang it up.

Open discussions around where your residents have been.

Add pins to the map to record where they have all travelled.

Does the resident or family have objects/photos they wish to share or show? They can generate conversation and aid memories

Write down experiences that residents are willing to share

Encourage family members to engage in the project